THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER    MAY 1, 2022    THE HISTORIAN VOL. 45 NO. 18

Message from our Pastor

Dear Parishioners of Little Flower, Our Lady of Mt. Carmel, and St. Mary's,

Today (Sunday, May 1st) is the three parish Altar Server Appreciation Day at Country Lanes Bowling Center in Cando from 1:30 to 3:30 pm, it is two hours of bowling, fun and food. The service provided by all the altar servers is greatly appreciated. A special thank you to Sr. Ruth Huhn, OSF for organizing the event.

Another year of catechetical instruction is coming to an end. We are all eternally grateful for all the wonderful members of the parishes who have given their time and shared their talents to help the youth of the parishes to be stronger in faith, hope and love and to imbue them with a greater knowledge and love of God. It takes commitment and sacrifice to make a parish faith formation program a success. I am thankful for all the directors, teachers and aides who have committed themselves each week to the youth of our parishes. I am sure our loving Father will bless them abundantly for their service to His children.

May 8th is Mothers' Day, an extra special day of the year. We implore God's blessing on all mothers in thanksgiving for their love, dedication, and care that they provide for us. Mothers demonstrate their love for us every day by their self-sacrifice and dedication to our needs, and well-being. They are always mindful of us and carry us in their hearts when we are well or when we are sick or facing difficulties.

May the blessings of God be upon us all!

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Fr. Frank Miller
Pastor

Please return your Lenten Giving boxes. All boxes should be returned by the end of April to the office at Little Flower School, teachers at Sunday School or before or after Masses in the special Catholic Charities of North Dakota baskets, found at the front entrance to the church and downstairs in the lunchroom. All funds will go to those who do so much at Catholic Charities of North Dakota. Thank you for your generous participation.

Parents, please be prudent and accompany your children as they come and go downstairs to the restrooms. In keeping with our charism of hospitality, our church doors are always open to those in need of shelter. Recently we have had unexpected visitors downstairs, who were strangers to our parish, passing through and seeking shelter. Because hospitality to all includes strangers, we ask parents to be prudent and accompany their children downstairs.
